Abstract

The text of the abstract (up to 250 words) should contain the main parts of the paper without subheadings: the aim of the paper (the question or problem being researched), the method, the key results, and the conclusions. The aim of the paper should be briefly written with the key results clear and precise, while short conclusions should only contain key results. The abstract cannot contain tables, charts, images or citations. It is written as one paragraph (Font: Times New Roman size 12 pt, justified alignment, single space). The title of the paper and the data on the authors should be written and justified in the font specified in the instructions. The abstract must be written in one of the languages of the constituent peoples in Bosnia and Herzegovina and in English (domestic authors). One space below the abstract there should be up to five key words in Serbian and English.

Key words: first, second, third, fourth, fifth.
